

Reflection Questions

Be Truthful

1. Do Christians have the right to enforce the standards of scripture on one another? How have you handled this responsibility?

---

---

2. Which attack on the truth do you encounter most? Which do you struggle with?

- Relativism – there is no absolute truth.
- Scepticism – we will never really know the truth.
- Pluralism – all truths are equally valid?

---

---

3. Do you struggle with always telling the truth? In what ways have you been hurt by lying or being lied to? How have you been blessed because you or someone else told the truth?

---

---

Be Loving

1. What does it mean to love every member of the human race? Is that even possible? Do you?

---

---

2. Have you, or someone you know, ever been discriminated against because of your race, nationality, culture, or social status? Has it ever happened among Christians? Did you respond in a godly way?

---

---

3. Do you think you could go to a worship service at a biker church, a goth church, a hip-hop church? Which would be hardest / easiest for you? Why?

---

---

Be Honouring

1. Are you an Unrepentant Sinner, Enabler, or Avider? What do you need to do about it?

---

---

2. Have you ever gone through the Matthew 18 process? What was it like? If not, is it because you've avoided doing it?

---

---

3. Why would God command us to treat a hypocritical Christian like a non-believer? What benefit could come from being "handed over to Satan?" How do you deal with hypocrites?

---

---

Be Trustworthy

1. Can people trust you? Do you struggle with trusting others? Why?

---

---

2. Do you ever add a bunch of disclaimers, explanations and excuses to things you say because you're not sure if you'll follow through? Why?

---

---

3. What vows have you broken, and what are you going to do to make it right?

---

---

Be Generous

1. In what ways have you acknowledged the Amazing Grace of God this week?

---

---

2. Have you ever taken advantage of someone by being selfish or using your wealth to cause harm? How will you make it right?

---

---

3. Have you ever done something morally wrong in order to get (or keep) more money or stuff? How will you make it right?

---

---